LUNG HEMORRHAGES

(I TOOK PE-RU-NA.)

MISS NINETTE PORTER.

Miss Ninette Porter, Braintree, Vermont, writes: "I have been cured by Peru."

"I had several hemorrhages of the lungs. The doctors did not help me much and would never have cured me."

"I saw a testimonial in a Peru magazine of a case similar to mine, and I commenced using it. I wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice. He kindly gave me free advice."

"I was not able to wait on myself when I began using it. I gained very slowly at first, but I could see that it was helping me."

"After I had taken a while I commenced to raise up a stringy, sticky substance from my lungs. This grew less and less in quantity as I continued the treatment."

"I grew more fleshy than I had been for a long time, and now I call myself well."

A Bad Cough.
Mrs. Emma Martin, Odessa, Mo., writes: "I cannot thank you enough for curing me."

"For two years I doctored my cough, which cost me many dollars, but still I seemed to get worse. My cough was so bad I could not sleep."

"Finally I purchased a bottle of Peru. After the use of six bottles I feel that I am cured."

"People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peru tablets."

Paint Folly

Folly to put-off painting when paint is high, and folly to use "cheap" paint.

Your buildings are worth—you say how much. If you don't paint them, how much less will they be worth in a year?

It will cost more to paint next year; it will take more paint at about $5 a gallon for paint and labor.

How much is the cost of paint by the year?

Depends on the paint. An average job is 3000 square feet, 10 gallons Devoe: $2.25 a gallon for paint and $2.50 a day ($2.50 a gallon too) for painting: $4.75 a gallon: $47.50. How long will it last? Depends on the owner: say 5 years; and your cost for Devoe is $9.50 a year.

"Cheap" paint, $1.75 a gallon, takes 15 gallons, labor the same $2.50 a day or gallon: $4.25 a gallon: 15 gallons $63.75. Say it lasts 2 years; it isn't sure two years; it isn't sure at all.

Enough: "cheap" paint costs more than good.

To this should be added the name of Jo. Yerby, the colored cook of one of the mules, mentioned in the foregoing roster, deserves a place of distinction in Confederate annals. He is today a wealthy contractor in the nation's capital, but his love for the cause and the men he so faithfully served four years is still dear to his heart. When the day comes for unveiling the monument to the Confederate Negro, one of its foundation stones should bear the simple name of "Jo. Yerby."

He entered the service with Capt. R. H. Pratt, serving through the war and brought out as major, trophies as his white companions in arms. Just before the surrender his master instructed him to strike for home with the horses in their possession. This he succeeded in safely doing, going via Gordonsville, Orange, Fredericksburg and down the Northern Neck. At home he remained until the summer, when the stress of the war, and his ex-master to turn him adrift to hustle for himself, got him to Washington with but $15 in his pocket he is today a wealthy and respected citizen.

At the battle of Gettysburg two of the troops, Cockrell and Sampson, were wounded. Jo. went into the city, stole a horse and harness, and dashed in like manner from the enemy's lines, and in it placed the wounded men and started them towards their home in Northern Neck county, with the parties and milder that he was his team, and he should call for it when he returned home. When he got home the grateful "rebels" delivered him his, what some might say, ill-gotten gains.

During the Federal Wilson's raid at Sophronia Church, in Dinwiddie county, two sergeants of the 9th Virginia distinguished themselves by their bravery. They were Lal Washington, of Co. C, and Alex. Pratt, of Co. K. Wilson was attempting to destroy the Petersburg and Weldon Railroad and the road was swarmed with his infantry. Men could not see one another. Pratt and Washington riding out a cross road ran into some scattering Federals. Two late to retreat, and not knowing their numbers, the two horsemen dashed into them and demanded their surrender. Seventy-two Federals laid down their arms and were marched into the Confederate camp.

It was at this raid that Erasmus Williams, of Lancaster county, than whom none braver ever shouldered a musket, was shot through the lung with a minnie ball.

In a previous charge in Goodland where Stoneman was making a raid around the James river a squad of Yankee of Yankee cavalry and Confederate First a gallow, then a trot, then a walk and back. Williams was shot through the back and the ball and a coat button were taken out in front. He survived and went back to receive his death wounds.

SPOTSYLVANIA ITEMS FROM MARVE
Marye, Va., Feb. 28.

Mr. French Acers, Jr., is improving from a severe attack of pneumonia and bronchitis, while his father, Mr. French Acers, Sr., is out again after an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. John Durrette, who has been seriously ill for several weeks with pneumonia is convalescent. Dr. Roderick Dew was the careful physician in this case.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Belle Scott, better known as "Aunt Belle," passed away at her home on Monday night, Feb. 20th. She was laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery, near the residence of Hon. C. R. Culenney, where she had lived for some thirty odd years. She was a slave of the late Geo. W. Davis. At her request the children of Mr. Coleman, who are great-grandchildren of her former master, called her by the endearing name of "Mammy." An aged husband, "Uncle Jim," with several relatives and friends, mourn for her, whose coffin will be buried on Monday.

Mr. A. W. Wiglesworth was in Fredericksburg Saturday.

Mr. O. B. Wiglesworth was in town Tuesday.

Mr. J. Thompson is expecting his son, Charles, and family, of Oregon, to move to this genial clime next month.

Miss Julia Beauchamp visited Miss Lucy Boxley at Mr. A. W. Davis' on Sunday and Monday.

The public school of this place closed on the 18th—a four months' term.

WONDERFUL REMEDY
That's What Is Said of Stomach Prescription Guaranteed by Goelrick's Pharmacy.

Stephen Waite of Lansing, Michigan, writes:

"For over three years I suffered much pain and annoyance from stomach disease. I had no help from my digestive organs, my food would stay in my stomach and ferment, causing gas and dizziness. I tried doctors and used every remedy that I heard of, but it remained for me to cure myself. Before I had used three boxes, my appetite and digestive organs became all right. It is a wonderful remedy."

MI-O-N-A stomach tablets are small and easy to swallow. They stop the most painful stomach distress in five minutes. They drive out sourness and gas and make the stomach clean and sweet.

They are sold by Goelrick's Pharmacy under a positive guarantee to cure any case of indigestion, or money back. They put vigor and vitality into people run down by indigestion. Sold by Goelrick's Pharmacy and leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a large box.

PHYTHIAN SISTERS

Much credit is due the committee who arranged this delightful entertainment, composed of Mesdames O. L. Harris, A. B. Young and R. P. Perry.

After the entertainment delightful refreshments were served.

There was a large crowd present and all agreed that it was one of the most delightful entertainments of the season.

ATTACKS SCHOOL PRINCIPAL
A severe attack on school principal Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ohio, is being made by a letter writer, who writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach troubles, and I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands are blessed them for curing stomach troubles, bile complaints, kidney diseases, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them only 50c at M. M. Lewis.

LORIMER WINS

U. S. Senate Declares His Election Valid.

THE VOTE WAS 46 TO 40

Chicago Blonde Boss Declared Not Guilty of Bribery After One of the Bitterest Struggles in History of Senate.

Washington, March 2.—The senate, by a vote of 46 to 40, sustained William Lorimer's title to a seat for the state of Illinois by defeating the resolution of Senator Beveridge declaring him not legally elected a member of the senate.

This ended one of the bitterest fights that ever has been waged in the senate, a struggle that occupied the greater part of this session of congress and broke down party lines in all directions.

Democrats and Republicans, regulars as well as insurgents, spoke and voted against Lorimer, and Democrats and Republicans pleaded his cause and cast their votes as judges in his favor.

A short debate preceded the vote, which was taken under an agreement that the speaker would not allow more than thirty minutes of almost continuous session and ended the filibuster between advocates of Lorimer and senators anxious to force through the permanent tariff commission bill.

The vote was followed with closest interest by the crowded galleries. One of the first to attract attention was Shelby M. Cullom, the venerable senator from Illinois. Both sides hailed him. He voted for Lorimer.

In the midst of Mr. Root's speech several weeks ago Mr. Bailey, of Texas, caused a sensation by declaring that if Lorimer's election was invalid for the reasons adduced by Mr. Root, then Cullom's election, too, was illegal.

Not until Senator Wetmore, next to the last name on the list, had voted, was the forty-six pro-Lorimer vote completed. The result had been expected, but everybody waited breathlessly for the announcement. It was received with applause from the galleries, but, as usual, this was quickly suppressed by the presiding officer.

How Vote Was Cast.
The record of the vote whereby Lorimer holds his seat follows:

Nays—(pro-Lorimer), Republicans: Bradley, Brandegee, Briggs, Bulkeley, Burnham, Carter, Clarke, of Wyoming, Crane, Cullom, Curtis, Dewey, Dick, Dillingham, Dupont, Flint, Frye, Gallinger, Gable, Guggenheim, Hale, Hayburn, Keam, Guggenheim, Nixon, Oliver, Penrose, Perkins, Platts, Richardson, Scott, Smoot, Stevenson, Warren, Burrows and Wetmore.

Democrats: Bacon, Chamberlain, Clarke, of Arkansas; Culberson, Davis, Gore, Martin, Money, Newlands, Overman, Owen, Percy, Raynor, Shreve, Smith, of South Carolina; Stone, Swann and Taylor. Total ayes, 40.

Absent—Aldrich, Frazier and Terrell.

Senator Tallaferra was in his seat, but did not respond to his name.

While no pairs were announced, Senator was paired on other questions with Senator Terrell, both being absent on account of illness. Senator Tallaferra's silence may signify a pair with Senator Frazier, who was absent on account of the death of his mother. Mr. Tallaferra had been understood to be pro-Lorimer.

ENDS LIFE WITH DYNAMITE
Tied Explosive About His Neck and Lit the Fuse.

Girardville, Pa., March 2.—Tired of life because of alleged domestic troubles, Simon Shutta, a miner, of William Penn, blew off his head with dynamite.

Shutta entered the mine, went to the face of the breast, but instead of beginning his daily work, tied several sticks of dynamite about his neck and lit the fuse. His body was horribly mutilated.

Scores Kaiser at Banquet.
Berlin, March 2.—According to the newspaper accounts, there was an unpleasant incident at the dinner of the University of Wurzburg in celebration of the nineteenth birthday of Prince Fritz Regal had been selected to propose a toast to Emperor William, and in doing so criticised his majesty severely, saying that he was not pleased to be required to toast a person with whom such fault could be found.

Students Molest Bulgarian King.
Berlin, March 2.—When King Ferdinand of Bulgaria was about to leave Nuremberg for Sofia he was molested by a number of intoxicated men just as he was about to enter his train. A number of German students then boarded the train and had to be forcibly ejected. The king apparently deeply resented the insult.

HAS MILLIONS OF FRIENDS.
How would you like to number your friends by millions as Bucklen's Arnica Salve does? Its astounding cures in the past forty years made them. IN MEMORIAM
In loving remembrance of my dear father, Robt. Patton, who died six years ago today, March 6th, 1906.

Gone from earth; yes, gone forever; Tears dimmed my heart with pain; We shall hear papa's voice, oh, never, Never more on earth again.

Dear father, you will never be forgotten, Never shall your memory fade; Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger Around the grave where you are laid.

Gone but not forgotten, By his loving daughter, Mrs. W. A. Smithson.

Arkansas Family Poisoned.
Helena, Ark., March 2.—Four children of William Ray, a timber man, of Elaine, are dead and his wife and two other children are in a hospital as a result of poisoning. Whether the family was intentionally poisoned or accidentally infected by ptomaine has not been determined. Pending investigation the body of a negro cook, is detained.

$5000 Reward For Stolen Jewels.
New York, March 2.—Lloyd's, the London underwriters, have offered a reward of $5000 for the recovery of Mrs. Malvina Drummond's jewels. The offer was made known through the Pinkertons. For a year, it was said, Mrs. Drummond has carried an insurance of $100,000 on the jewels that disappeared from the Hamburg American liner America.
